Categories

1. 4 categories -Colour Prints, Mono Prints, Small (Mini) Prints & Digitally Projected Image (DPI)

2. Members can enter from 1 to a MAXIMUM OF 6 ENTRIES per Display Night. You can choose whatever combination of categories you wish to enter, and can change combinations every month depending on your own personal favourites, time, printing circumstances, etc.

3. Maximum of 3 entries in any single category: Colour Prints, B&W/Mono Prints, Small (Mini) Prints and Digitally Projected Images (DPI).

4. Digitally Projected Images (DPI): All digitally produced entries must be made from photos taken by the author.

5. Small (Mini) Prints: The Small (Mini) Print definitions allow a maximum photo size of 5x7in (12.7cm x 17.8cm). This means that you have a choice of sizes up to the maximum of 5x7in. The maximum mount size for Mini Prints will remain at 8x10in (200mmx250mm).
    Context: Composition - "Getting Your Eye In"
    Small (Mini) prints should be the printed image as it comes from the camera with overall/global corrections such as brightness, saturation, contrast, and white balance only allowed. "Selective" adjustments such as burning, dodging and cloning are not allowed. Cropping is allowed. The prints may be produced commercially or on a home printer. Prints that have been "selectively" adjusted should be entered in the Large Colour Print section.

6. Large Colour and B&W/Mono Prints have no editing constraints except they must fit within a maximum mount size 40cmx50cm (16in x 20 in).
    Black & White Prints/Monochrome can be toned but not Coloured. Any hand coloured print or print with a mixture of Black and White and Colour material or any Black and White Freestyle Print with a colour element shall be placed in the Colour Print Section. Any digitally produced Black and White Print that retains its monochrome nature can be entered into the Black and White Section as long as any computer manipulation is the work of the author. Prints may be commercially processed, digitally produced or made in a darkroom. All original photos must be taken by the author.

Display Night Entry Requirements - FOR ALL PHOTO ENTRIES

Large Prints may be processed by the author, commercially processed, digitally produced, or be Freestyle (contain a Non-photographic Element).
